Dear Mrs. Dejamette-Miller:

Per our conversation this afternoon, this letter is a formal request for a fifteen (15) day extension of the time for the following parties to submit a response regarding MUR 5678:

- 1) BULLY! PAC
551 Airport Road
Bismark, North Dakota 58504; and
- 2) Harold Newman
P.O. Box 1728
Jamestown, North Dakota 58402

The aforementioned parties received your correspondence after the Labor Day holiday and have just contacted me. By my count, under the current fifteen day timeframe, a response is required from the parties by Wednesday, September 21st

Unfortunately, due to logistics and travel issues, and to the lateness of my participation in the matter, September 21st will not afford adequate time for me to meet with the parties, assess the issues raised and draft a thorough response. Therefore, I respectfully request an additional fifteen (15) days in which to respond.

Thank you very much for your consideration and your help in this matter. Please do not hesitate to call me if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Jill Holtzman Vogel
